

Waterloo Region VOTES

Municipal Elections – October 27th

Commitment to a Fair, Healthy and Resilient Waterloo Region

Voters in the October 2014 municipal election need to know!

If elected on October 27th, I will:

- get informed, be involved and support community discussions and initiatives to find solutions to social, environmental and economic concerns
- support policies that ensure a fair, healthy and resilient community
- support infrastructure projects that ensure wellbeing and access for everyone in the neighbourhoods where they live
- vote to approve fees for and fund recreational and cultural programs and activities that are affordable for those on fixed or low incomes
- improve programs and service delivery so people can easily access and navigate service systems
- collaborate with my peers, other public bodies, community organizations and community members on defining and implementing social, environmental and economic strategies
- advocate to higher orders of government to achieve adequate funding for the social and physical infrastructure that is needed in our community
- support the development of local multi-dimensional criteria to assess the impact, in people's day to day lives, of policies, plans and programs (e.g. for poverty elimination see the Dignity and Respect for All framework)
